the retrogressive form displayed by Miller. Last year Miller practically was invincible, but it was apparent this spring that, unless the young man gets a move on himself he will have to look to his laurels if he expects to end the season at the top of the list. The most promaising riding material developed at the meeting was Joe Johnson, who showed remarkable improvement over his form of last fall, but even Johnson cannot be reckoned as a first-class boy. He is too prone to take the long way around the
